What did both partnerships have in common ?

Happy New Year to all our existing and new pupils, 2014 will be Fabulous

Well we don't know about you but we are dying to get back to teaching. The break for Christmas has been far too long. Don't worry though, we will be recapping on all the steps we have started with last year to ensure that nothing gets forgotten before we consider anything new. The idea isn't to pack your minds out with too many steps but to show you how easy it can be to navigate a crowded floor with relative ease :)

Lets help you all to get rid of the last vestiges of Xmas pud and turkey.
